

Jan. 21, 1924
Comedic team of George Burns and Gracie Allen

Oct. 11, 1926
Lillian Roth
Actress whose life was made into a movie
"I'll Cry Tomorrow"

June 3, 1926
Buster Brown and Tige

—The Palace Crashes Through!

See the big movie "scoop"! All of the carnival events staged out-of-doors, during day or night. A masterpiece of a production! See the thrilling event! Everything recorded. If you missed one event, it will be here for you to see. — 2,000 feet of the

Manchester Winter Carnival

"See yourself in the movies"

This super-feature to be shown ONLY at the Palace Theater. All this week!

And Five All-Star Acts

THE MARYLAND SINGERS

—Sings who know how to harmonize. Their offerings include a lot of old time numbers as well as a number of new creations.

HOLDEN & GRAHAM

—Shadows and two clever artists. A novel act that is good.

BURNS and ALLEN

—What three act offer you is up to date act. You'll like it.

THE SKATELLES

—These performers have a digital of clever stunts.

ARTHUR WHITELAW

—He is an Irish photographer. Always talk- ing.

THERE WILL ALSO BE A COMEDY AND A NEWS WEEKLY

PALACE 3 Times Daily 2:15 7:45

TODAY-TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY

An All Star Show—5 Wonder Vaudeville Acts

Will Higgle and His 6 Magnetic Misses

Doing the Most Tantalizing Hoopling Ever Originated. The Higgle Stamp including Miss Josephine Levan, Irene Miller, Elmer Waterman, Patsy Dee, Corliss McBride and Joyce Andrews.

4

Shows
Tuesday
Columbus Day
1:30, 3:30
7:00, 8:45

DEWEY AND ROGERS

PRESENTS
"MONEY"—
A Comedy with Music

BERT & DOLLY RYAN

World's Only Ski Dancers in "Different Dancing"

LILLIAN ROTH

"The Winsome Miss" in "Songs"

CLIFFORD & GREY

"Hurricane Hoop Jugglers"

BUSTER AND TIGE TO ENTERTAIN HERE

Famous Duo Hosts to Children
Tomorrow Afternoon at Palace

Buster Brown and Tige, famous in cartoons and known to practically every child in the country, are going to show in person tomorrow afternoon in the Palace Theatre at 4:15 o'clock.

Buster's well known grin and Tige's wink, which is just as well known, will be seen by local youngsters who have been invited to attend the theatre party, free of charge. Souvenirs will be distributed.

The show will be given by the New Idea Show Company of 511 Elm street, where seven tickets may be secured by the children.

Buster Brown is a born comedian and Tige is the funniest and most faithful dog in the world. Their antics have been pictured in comics for years, but tomorrow local youngsters will have an opportunity to hear them talk and bark, smile and make merry for their benefit.